

CONTENTS

Preface	7
1 Why Do Resources Matter? An Introduction to ResourceCultures	9
2 The Concept of ResourceCultures	15
2.1 Concepts of Resources	15
2.2 Resources as Part of a Network	17
2.3 From Resource to Culture: Conceptual Framework of ResourceCultures	20
Excursus: Religious Practices	22
Excursus: Health	24
3 Developments	27
3.1 Concepts on Developments	27
Excursus: Materiality of Metals	29
3.2 Social Dynamics	30
3.3 Multidimensionality of Historical Processes	35
3.4 Developments in Landscapes	38
Excursus: Landscape	39
Excursus: Colluvial Deposits	43
Excursus: Freshwater Scarcity on Islands	44
3.5 Synthesis	45
4 Resources and Movements	47
4.1 Theoretical Background for Understanding the Relationship between Movement and Resources	47
Excursus: Machine Learning	49
4.2 Modalities of Movement	50
Excursus: Soil	52
Excursus: Power	54
4.3 Intraregional Mobility and the Role of Pathways	56
Excursus: Favour/Disfavour	58
Excursus: Islands and Resources, Islands as Resources	61
4.4 Supraregional Mobility and Long-Distance Movements	63
Excursus: Migration Past and Present – Or Why We All Have a Migratory Background	65

Contents

4.5	Synthesis	69
5	Values, Valuation and Value Creation of Resources	71
5.1	The Symbolic Dimension of Resources	73
	Excursus: Collective Memory	74
5.2	The Social Dimension of Resources	79
	Excursus: Identity	83
	Excursus: Cultural Heritage	85
5.3	The Political Dimension of Resources	87
5.4	Synthesis	92
6	Case Studies – Defining and Analysing ResourceCultures	93
6.1	Some Thoughts on Resource Management and its Socio-cultural Implications – A Case Study from the Mountains of Kermān (South-east Iran)	95
6.2	Cattle as a Resource During the Transition from the Bronze Age to the Iron Age in the South-west of the Iberian Peninsula	111
6.3	The Use and Non-use of Resources during the Bronze and Iron Ages in Menorca (Balearic Islands, Spain)	119
6.4	Islands and Water as ResourceComplexes – Interdisciplinary Reflections on Insularity	129
6.5	Landscape and Settlement Patterns and the Concept of Resources and ResourceCultures. Two Examples from Iran and Northern Iraq	146
6.6	Pathways as ResourceCultures. A Perspective from a Late 19th Century Colony in Paraguay	168
6.7	Gone with the Wind? Why the Palatines of Tübingen Have Not Entered Cultural Memory	179
6.8	Karbalā' Bārānī – An Ancestor as (Re-)Source of a Collectively Shared Identity in the Mountains of Kermān, Iran	186
6.9	Heroa of City Founders as Resources of Civic Identity and Cultural Memory. Beyond Colonisation, Decolonisation and Romanisation	195
6.10	Heritage as a Resource for Environmental Activism. A Case Study from the Garhwal Himalayas	208
6.11	Memories Are Liquid Stones. Resources and Languages of Memory in a Mobile Society – The Case of the Northern Apennines (8th–5th Centuries BC)	214
	Image and Map Credits	229
	Bibliography	231