

Inhalt / Contents

Vorwort.	1
10. Kolloquium der Ernst-Herzfeld-Gesellschaft in Hamburg am 3.–6.7.2014, organisiert von Stefan Heidemann, unterstützt vom Asien Afrika Institut der Universität Hamburg	3
12. Kolloquium der Ernst-Herzfeld-Gesellschaft in Berlin am 1.–3.7.2016, organisiert von Martin Gussone und Martina Müller-Wiener, unterstützt vom Fachgebiet Historische Bauforschung der TU Berlin.	5
What is a Painter in Medieval Islam? Reflections Based on Medieval Illustrated Arabic Manuscripts of Kalīla wa Dimna Nourane Ben Azzouna	7
Al-Ḥawarnaq und as-Sadīr, Ṣalḥīn und Ġumdān. Erinnerung an die vorislamischen Schlösser der arabischen Welt Barbara Finster	25
The Zisa. Representations of a “Highly Desired” Monument Vincenza Garofalo	41
An Ottoman Flag in Urbino Mattia Guidetti	57
A Late-Fifteenth-Century Change in the Rapport of Friday Mosque and Ottoman City: A Case Study of Macedonia Maximilian Hartmuth	73
Popular Garments, Fabrics and Colours. Textile Terminology in Early Islamic Arabic Documents in Egypt Alexandra D. Pleşa	89
The Collections of Islamic Artifacts from Samarra in France Vanessa Rose	113
A New Look at Samarra: Small Finds from the Herzfeld Excavation in the Victoria and Albert Museum Mariam Rosser-Owen and Rosalind Wade Haddon	123
Al-Ġumail – ein Fischerdorf des 20. Jahrhunderts im Nordwesten Katars Bernadeta Schäfer – Moritz Kinzel	151
The Popularity of Narrative Tile Painting in the Qajar Period Atefeh Seyed Mousavi	177

Siyāh Qalam: Independent Black Ink Drawings in the Diez and Istanbul Albums
Friederike Weis 193

Ottoman Caravanserais in Syria: Jean Sauvaget Revisited
Robin Wimmel 211

Picture Narration and Oral Performance: Representing the Chain of Events in the Illustrated Medieval Persian Romance Samak-e ʿayyār
Roxana Zenhari 239

